1.1 INTRODUCTION:

Rise Krishna Sai Prakasam Group of Institutions is designed to serve as a Center for Academic Excellence in imparting Technical Education. The Institution is recognized by All India Council of Technical Education and is affiliated to Jawaharlal Technological University, Kakinada.

It has been established by Rise Krishna Sai Group of Institutions, which is a non-profit Society. The Governing Body is the supreme authority, under which various Institutions launched by the society will function. The Governing Body is responsible for the development and/or approval of the Institute programmes and for the policies under which the Institute operates. The Governing body of the Society considered that it is necessary to formulate the terms and conditions of service for regulating the various categories/levels of employees employed in their Institutions existing and that are going to be established. These conditions of service are well formulated, taking into consideration the various aspects and aspirations of the teaching and non-teaching staff.

The principal objective is to attract persons with missionary zeal and to retain the well-qualified and talented staff in all disciplines, with the ultimate object of imparting high standard and quality education in the field of Engineering, Technology and Management.

Having set the aforesaid goals, it is necessitated for the Institute to frame conditions of employment, which are clearly just and fair to the interest of both the employees and the Institute. These service conditions are aimed to encourage the employees to take sincere interest and pride in the Institute and its progress and to put their best talents in the discharge of their responsibilities.

The Institute wishes to encourage its employees to improve their professional qualification on par with changing needs of the Engineering education and to grow in their abilities to serve the Institution. Likewise, it wishes to appropriately evaluate, recognize and reward superior performance. The following service conditions are framed with this in mind; however, these conditions and practices will be reviewed periodically and such changes will be made as experience indicates.

These service rules concern only regular employees who are employed on the rolls of the Institute/institutes and on continuing positions. Some persons may be employed on temporary/Adhoc/contractual/part-time basis for a specific purpose and/or for a specific period of time. Such employees are not covered under the provisions of these rules/policies outlined herein, beyond the extent set forth in their respective letters of appointment/agreement. This also does not apply to daily-rated/contract labour /workers.

The Management/Governing body of Rise Krishna Sai Group, in exercise of powers conferred by the Articles of the Society, had made the following rules and regulations, for administration of the Institutions run under their control.

1.2 SHORT TITLE: These regulations may be called as the Rise Krishna Sai Group of Institutions Service Rules.

1.3 APPLICABILITY: They shall come into force (deemed to have come into force) with effect from (date to be put) and shall apply to all the regular employees of the Institute. Unless otherwise stated specifically, these rules and regulations shall not apply to persons employed on temporary or on adhoc basis or on contractual/on the rolls of subcontractors or daily-waged basis.

1.4 DEFINITIONS:

With these rules and regulations, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) Society means Rise Krishna Sai Group of Institutions registered with Registration of society of Government of Andhra Pradesh with Register No.76/2003, Established on 2009.

(b) Management means the Governing Body of the Society, duly constituted under the specific byelaws of the Trust under which all these Institutions are established which a supreme authority is. However, the overall Management and the day-to-day administration of the Society and its affiliated Institutions shall rest with the Secretary and with the Management Committee formed under the directions from the Governing Body of the Society and constituted as per the relevant provisions of the AICTE.

(c) Society and affiliated Institutions/Institute means and includes:

Rise Krishna Sai Group of Institutions:

1. Among other Institutions / centers of excellence that may be established at a later date etc.

A) 'Employee' means a regular employee employed by Rise Krishna Sai Prakasam Group of Institutions to discharge the duties of the Society or its affiliated organizations for teaching and non-teaching purposes on remuneration basis.

B) 'Salary' means Basic Pay, Dearness Allowance and other allowances, if any, wherever applicable or consolidated pay without any allowances payable to an employee.

C) 'Service' includes the period during which an employee is on duty as well as on leave duly authorized by the Management, but does not include any period during which an employee is absent without salary.

D) Disciplinary Authority: The Secretary is the disciplinary authority for all the employees employed in the Institutions under the control of the Society.

The Secretary may nominate any other person/employee to be the disciplinary authority for a certain class/category of employees. The person so nominated shall exercise the powers of the disciplinary authority in discharge of the duty.

E) Appellate Authority: Where the disciplinary authority is being exercised by the Secretary, the Management Committee along with the Secretary will constitute as Appellate Authority; in all other cases, the Secretary will be the Appellate Authority.

F) Enquiry Officer: Enquiry Officer is the person/committee appointed by the disciplinary authority to enquire into the charges leveled against an employee of an Institution.

1.5 POWER TO IMPLEMENT AND TO AMEND THE RULES:

The power to implement or to amend the rules and regulations vests with the Management, which is empowered to issue such administrative instructions or orders as may be necessary to give effect and to carry out the provisions of these rules and regulations. The Management shall have absolute right, liberty and powers to withdraw, modify, amend, alter and to repeal or to supersede at its sole discretion any or all the rules contained herein or any rules and regulations framed and enforced by it from time to time.

1.6 MANAGEMENT'S POWERS TO DELEGATE:

The Management means the Management Committee. It may delegate to the Secretary or to any officer or officers of the Society or institutions under their control, any or all its functions, wholly or partly, permanently or temporarily, and such officer or officers shall be the Management for the purpose of interpretation of these rules to the extent and for the duration of the period as may be authorized by the Management.

1.7 APPOINTMENTS, PROBATION & TERMINATION OF SERVICE:

1.7.1 CLASSIFICATION OF EMPLOYEES:

The employees will be classified as follows:

- i) Teaching Staff
- ii) Non-Teaching staff including administrative, supporting technical staff and non-technical employees.

They are further classified as:

- a) Regular employee: means the qualified person employed in a regular post and has successfully completed the probation for a period of two years and whose regular service has been confirmed in writing.

Probationary employee: is a person who is provisionally employed with a view to being considered for eventual absorption in the regular service of the Institute. The period of probation, however, will be stipulated in the letter of appointment, which may be extended at the discretion of the Management. Further, before absorption of the concerned, it is considered essential that the performance of the probationer is objectively judged and evaluated in prescribed format by the HOD or Principal, who recommends his/her service to confirm/extend probation or even for termination, if found not suitable.

- b) Staff on contract: All the subordinate and secretarial staff members, lab assistants, supporting technical staff etc. fall in this category, whose service conditions will be as per mutually agreed terms of appointment, which they have entered with the Institute and whose probation period may or may not be renewed.

- c) Temporary/Adhoc appointees: means employees who are employed for work which is essentially of temporary nature or who are employed in connection with the temporary increase in permanent work or are employed in a post of permanent or temporary employee or probationer who are temporarily absent due to any reason, including one permitted by the Institute to go on advanced studies.
- d) Apprentices / Trainees: means persons engaged for training and who will be on stipend during the period. However, regularization of their services is purely at the discretion of the Institute.
- i) Casuals: means persons employed for work of a casual or occasional nature.
 - ii) The Management shall fix the number of posts in each INSTITUTION in all categories from time to time and also prescribe qualifications, mode of recruitment, and the scales of pay etc., to each category of posts, which may be reviewed and revised by the Management from time to time, depending upon the exigencies. The pay scales of the Teaching Staff are covered under AICTE scales. Hence, their payments will be fixed in the appropriate grades and scales depending upon qualifications, experience, exposure and merit etc., as applicable and as amended from time to time, except the staff recruited temporarily or on adhoc basis or on consolidated pay.
 - iii) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules and regulations, the Management may employ persons on a temporary/adhoc basis or on contract basis to different posts in the organization under their control on consolidated pay or on daily wages, wherever the necessity and circumstances so warrant.
 - iv) For all the non-teaching staff, the terms and conditions with regard to pay etc.

1.8 EMPLOYMENT OF NEAR RELATIVES:

As a general rule, it is the policy of Rise Group of Institutions to avoid employment of two or more members of the same family or close relations. Any exception to this policy must be approved by the Governing body and would normally be allowed only if another person equally well-qualified can be recruited.

1.9 AGE:

The age of a person at the time of his/her first appointment in the Organizations under the control of Management shall be at the discretion of the Management.

In case of Teaching Staff, other than the staff covered under the AICTE scales of pay, the Management may take decision basing on the qualification, experience etc. about the age of the person employed to the posts.

In other cases, 30 years Provided that the Management in deviation of the above, may also employ persons who possess even more than the age of 30 years, depending upon the qualifications, experience etc. possessed by them in the exigencies of service.

1.10 JOINING FORMALITIES:

At the time of joining, the new recruit would have to furnish the following to the Personnel/HR Department:

- Joining Report
- Proof of Date of Birth
- Original Certificates supporting qualification/experience for verification with copies to be furnished.
- Two passport size photographs
- Names and addresses of two persons for contacting in case of any emergency.

1.11 COMMENCEMENT OF SERVICES:

Except as otherwise provided by or under these regulations, service of an employee shall be deemed to commence from the working day on which the employee reports to duty in an appointment covered by these regulations at the place and time intimated to him/her by the Management, provided he/she reports in the forenoon; otherwise, his/her service shall commence from the following day. In the case of a batch of persons appointed as per the recommendation of a duly constituted selection committee, the seniority of persons will be as per the merit order in the proceedings of the selection committee.

1.12 PROBATION:

Employees who are appointed to the posts in the organization under the control of the Management directly on a regular basis shall be required to be on probation for a period of one year and in case of employees on promotion/transfer appointed to higher posts shall be for a period of one year.

The probationary period shall stand automatically extended until confirmation orders or otherwise re-issued in writing by the Management. The services of an employee on probation may be terminated either by giving one month's notice to the other party or one month' salary in lieu thereof.

1.13 RESIGNATION AND TERMINATION:

a) If an employee at any time after confirmation intends to resign, he/she shall give one months' notice in writing or pay one months' salary in lieu thereof. Similarly, the Management shall be competent at their discretion to terminate the services of any employee by giving one months' notice or one months' salary in lieu of notice.

The Management shall also be competent to terminate the services of an employee in case of abolition of post or posts, due to closure of an Institution or reduction in the number of sections of a class or discontinuance of a teaching subject by giving three months' notice in writing or by paying three months' salary in lieu thereof.

b) The Management shall also be competent to terminate the services of an employee who is incapacitated to discharge his/her official duties or for misconduct in discharge of his/her official duties, -by giving one months' notice or paying salary in lieu of notice.

1.14 RETIREMENT:

Every employee shall retire from service on attaining the age of superannuation, i.e., 60 years in case of teaching staff and 58 years of age in case of others. Provided that the Management, in the interest of the organizations under their Management, may extend the period of services of the employee concerned by such period as determined depending on the mental and physical condition of such an employee.

The employees in all categories of posts shall retire from services after attaining the age of superannuation w.e.f. the afternoon of the last day of the month in which their date of retirement falls.

The following guidelines may be laid down for seeking reemployment in the Institution after attaining the age of superannuation:

a) Whenever a regular teaching employee is going to attain 60 years and in case of a non-teaching employee, 58 years, the date of superannuation of such employee may be noticed three months in advance, after obtaining orders of the Secretary.

b) If such an employee desires to serve the Institution after superannuation, he/she may apply, in writing, to the Principal to continue him/her in the service.

c) On receipt of such an application, the Head of the Department concerned may be asked to offer his/her remarks on the mental and physical condition of the employee and whether there is a need to continue him/her in service, duly indicating the work load to be assigned to such an employee.

d) The Principal may offer his remarks and make his specific recommendation on the necessity and desirability or otherwise of continuing such an employee and indicating the terms and conditions of his/her re-appointment such as:

i) Tenure of appointment

ii) Consolidated salary to be paid per month. To arrive at the consolidated salary to be paid, the last pay drawn by the employee may be taken into account, which may be rounded off to the next hundred.

iii) Such employees are not entitled for any other leave except casual leave, unless specially permitted by the Management in specific cases.

1.15 WORKING HOURS / HOLIDAYS / VACATION:

The working timings of the employees are determined and notified by the Institute from time to time, based on the work / service requirements, fulfillment of Institute's obligation to students and such other expediencies. The Institute will observe National / Festival holidays as may be notified from time to time. Employees notified will be available for work on said holidays and those working on the holidays will be granted compensatory off (as per the convenience of the Institute).

The Institute will also observe vacation which will be notified from time to time.

1.16 ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY:

Each employee in the Institute has an important role in ensuring smooth and efficient handling of classroom and maintenance of discipline as well required for the smooth functioning of the Institute.

They are, therefore, expected to be at their respective allotted places on time on each working day. Employees are expected to be present for duty on all working days, except on the days of authorized leave.

1.17 PERSONAL RECORDS:

The employee records are kept within the Administration Department, which are used within the Institute only for bonafide reasons. As a policy, Administration Department ensures that the relevant employment-related information is maintained in strict confidence. Employee-related information is given to outsiders only if the Institute is satisfied with the validity of the request, or if it is required by law, or if the employee himself has requested that information to be supplied for reference purposes.

1.18 APPRAISALS:

There will be a system of annual performance appraisal of Institute's employees on a regular basis. The main objective of this scheme is to evaluate the performance of an employee systematically, so that at any point of time, it is possible to assess his/her capabilities without being required to oral enquiries in different quarters. Obviously, the performance appraisal report will have an important bearing on the:

- a) Promotion as well as sanction of increments
- b) Confirmation of service.
- c) In respect of Ad hoc appointees, for taking them to regular rolls.
- d) Self-appraisal to appraise one's own on their goals/targets gives an opportunity to explain what he/she has done and factors that helped and / or hindered his/her performance.

Regarding the probationers, this report is a must to confirm his/her services; hence periodical appraisal will be done and deficiencies will be brought to his/her notice for necessary rectification.

1.19 DISCIPLINE:

a) Every employee is expected to maintain a certain standard of discipline as envisaged by the Institute policies in force from time to time, failing which, he/she renders himself liable for such action as may be taken against him/her. Every employee shall take all possible steps as may be required of him/her to ensure and to protect the interests of the Institute and perform his/her duties with utmost integrity, honesty, devotion and diligence.

b) Every employee shall show courtesy in his/her interactions with other employees, students, parents of the students, suppliers and others having dealings with the Institute.

c) Every employee shall strive to develop and impart such an education to the students of the Institute to develop expertise in their respective fields and to groom them to be adaptable to any environment requiring leadership qualities, positive attitudes, loyalty and integrity towards the organization wherever they are going to be employed.

d) Every employee shall strive to develop and impart such an education to the students of the institute to develop expertise in their respective fields and to groom them to be a adaptable to any environment requiring leadership qualities , positive attitudes , loyalty and integrity towards the organization wherever they are going to be employed.

1.20 LIABILITY TO ABIDE BY THE RULES AND REGULATIONS:

Every employee shall conform to and abide by such rules and shall observe, comply with and obey all orders and directions issued by the Management from time to time, with utmost endeavor to promote the interest of the organization wherein he/she is working by showing courtesy and attention in all transactions.

1.21 EMPLOYEE'S APPLICATION FOR OTHER EMPLOYMENT:

a) No employee shall apply for other employment or signify his/her willingness to accept such employment or office, whether stipendiary or honorary or otherwise. Without the prior written permission of the Management.

However, the Management may, at their discretion, permit an employee to apply for an outside post not more than twice a year.

b) No employee, whether on leave or in active service of the Institution. Shall undertake a part time job, which is likely to embarrass or influence him/her in discharge of his/her official duties, for any consideration of cash or kind. However, an employee, with the written permission of the Management, may undertake honorary work of a social or charitable nature or occasional work of a literary. Artistic or scientific character, subject to the condition that such work does not interfere with his/her official duties.

1.22 OBLIGATION TO MAINTAIN SECRECY:

Every employee shall maintain secrecy in regard to the affairs of the Institution and its constituents and shall not divulge directly any information of a confidential nature, either to a member of the public or of the Institution staff, unless compelled to do so by judicial or other legal authority or unless instructed to do so by the Management.

1.23 ABSENCE FROM DUTY WITHOUT PRIOR PERMISSION:

An employee shall not absent himself / herself from his/her duties without first obtaining the permission of the competent authority. In case of unavoidable circumstances, a message or a letter should be sent on the next working day, giving the reasons of his/her absence for the previous days. If the employee absents himself continuously for a period of 10 working days or more without any leave letter or communication, the employee shall be deemed to have deserted the post held by him/her from the date on which he/she abstained from duty.

Budget is the statement of the estimated receipts and expenditure, prepared well in advance, of the desired plan of action for the ensuing financial year. The Budget estimates are prepared by the Accounts Department after receiving the Budget proposals from the Departments and submitted to the Director. The Budget estimates shall be placed before the Governing Body for its approval also.

Budget estimates for each year shall be prepared by the Accounts Department based on reality and need. The provisions under the various heads of accounts shall be scientifically worked out.

While sanctioning expenditure the approved budget provision shall be verified. If for any reason, the provision made in the approved budget is found to be insufficient to accord sanction for any expenditure, sanction has to be taken from Director to re-appropriate the funds from other heads of accounts where there is a scope for surplus at the end of the year. If for any reason there is no scope to re-appropriate any amount from the other heads of account in the budget, the alternative is to seek for additional provision under the same head of account to the extent necessary.
