REPORT on SANKRANTI SAMBARAALU

Venue: Entire Campus

NO. of Participants: All Girl Students and Lady Faculty

Makar Sankranti (also known as Makara Sankranti or Maghi) is a festival day in the Hindu calendar, in reference to deity Surya (sun). It is observed each year in January. It marks the first day of sun's transit into the Makara (Capricorn), marking the end of the month with the winter solstice and the start of longer days.

Being a festival that celebrates the solar cycle, it usually falls on the same Gregorian date every year. The festivities are known by various names such as Lohri by north Indian Hindus and Sikhs, Makara Sankranti (Pedda Pandaga) in Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh, Sukarat in central India, Magh Bihu by Assamese, and Pongal by Tamils.

The Management, staff and students of RISE KRISHNA SAI PRAKASAM GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS celebrated "Sankranthi Sambaralu" in the college premises on 29th December 2020. The students dressed in their traditional best decorated the premises with Rangoli and took part in various activities.

Entire corridor of the campus is beautifully decorated by the students, who took it as a fun activity. The entire college wore a colorful look with Rangolies. Students decorated the Rangolies by keeping "Gobbemmas" at the centre of Rangolies. The initiative was appreciated by, Principal of the college and in his Sankranthi wishes message he addressed the students, to fly high on their Dreams and aspirations like a kite, but stay grounded on your values like the string that holds the kite.

The principal of RISE Krishna Sai Prakasam group of Institution started the program with his speech wishing the students to develop the forgotten Indian tradition and festive culture.

The Chief Advisor of RAGA committee Sidda Pravallika garu gave her valuable message to the students and explained about importance of Indian culture and importance of decorating the mother earth.

At the end of the program as a token of love Chief Guest was felicitated by the college management and the program ended with the vote of thanks.
