Value Education Cell

Value Education is the process by which people give moral values to each other. It can be an activity that can take place in any human organization. During which people are assisted by others, who may be older, in a condition experienced to make explicit our ethics in order to assess the effectiveness of these values and associated behavior for their own and others' long-term well-being, and to reflect on and acquire other values and behavior which they recognize as being more effective for long term well-being of self and others. There is a difference between literacy and education. RISE KRISHNA SAI PRAKASAM GROUP OF INSTITUTIONS is committed to provide value education in a self-exploratory, systematic and scientific way through formal education. Value Education Cell is set up in accordance with the AICTE guidelines.
